

Know Your Cards

ARTA Membership Card

Your ARTA Membership card is used to:

- Access the member portal section of ARTA's website, www.arta.net, where you can:
 - Update your information, such as address, etc.
 - Access detailed information on Affinity Program partners and their special offers and discounts and ensure that you stay up to date on the additions of new partners
- Access to a Life Insurance Plan specifically for ARTA members
- Access to scholarships for family members
- Access to special rates from ARTA's home & auto insurance partner, TW Insurance Brokers
- Advocacy for issues affecting seniors in Alberta and nationally
- Affiliation to ARTA branches that provide localized community activities, networking opportunities and a conduit for effective communication to all ARTA members
- Access to wellness information
- news & views magazine
- ArtaFacts email newsletter

ARTA Membership Number - also used as username on Member Login screen.

Expiry of ARTA Membership

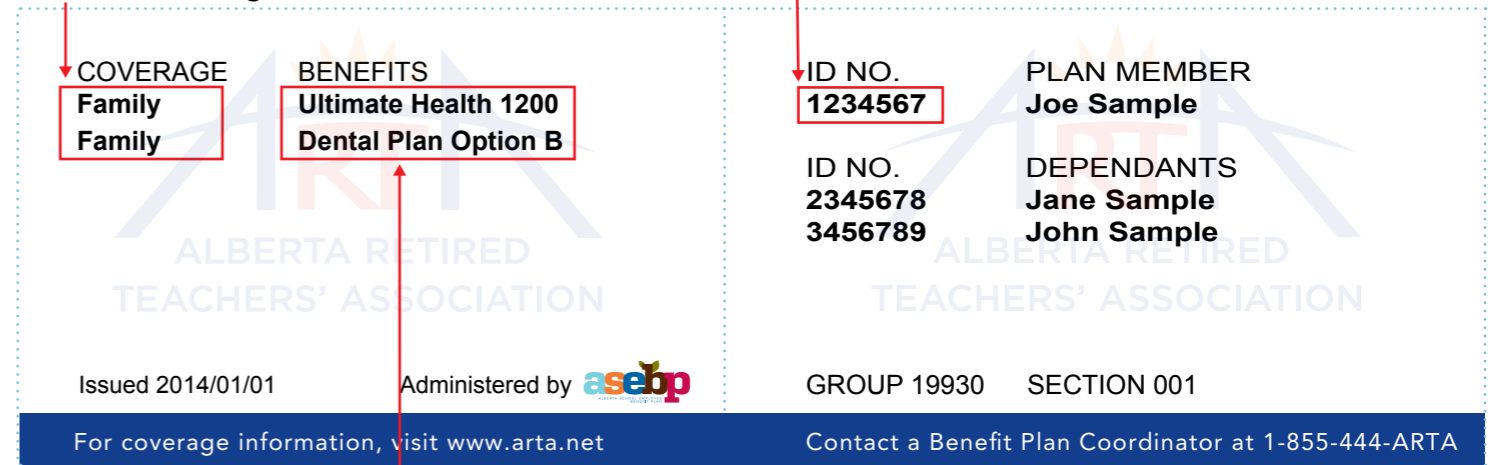

ARTA Retiree Benefits ID Card

Your ARTA Retiree Benefits ID card is to be used for your Health, Dental and Travel Benefits.

- Provide your ARTA benefits numbers to health care professionals, e.g. dentist, pharmacist, etc.
- If your Extended Health Care coverage includes travel, bring this card on all trips. All emergency travel numbers are on the back of your card.
- Use your ARTA Benefits ID number to log in to the ARTA Members Health Care Account, which can be found at <https://arta.asebp.ab.ca>.

ARTA Benefits ID Number - also used as username for the ARTA Members Health Care Account

Benefits Coverage Level

Current Benefits