Are You ARTA’s Next Top Model?
ARTA often uses stock photography on our website, in corporate publications, news&views magazine, and other sources. The problem with stock photography is it can sometimes misrepresent retirees and their lifestyle. ARTA is a vibrant, engaged organization and we want our imagery to reflect that!

We are looking for active ARTA members to take part in a professional photography session. The session will take place on Wednesday, August 14, starting at 9 a.m., at Hawrelak Park in Edmonton, Alberta.

A moderate level of physical fitness is required to participate.

Models will receive lunch during the photo shoot and compensation for their time.

We need models of all ages, both men and women. If you are interested, please email jhope@arta.net for more details. Responses are required by Thursday, August 8. Strike a pose!

Reporting Fraudulent Benefit Claims
We all have a responsibility to ensure that our ARTA benefits are being used appropriately. While the vast majority of claims are made in good faith, there are times when service providers or people take advantage of the plan. If you think this is happening, we need to know.
